The IQN theoretical examination

A Pearson VUE testing centre overseas or in New Zealand conducts this online exam.

The examination is in two parts:

Part A: Medication Safety

Part B: Nursing Knowledge

Applicants will have six months from the date of the invitation email to successfully complete it in a maximum of three attempts.

The clinical competence assessment process (OSCE)

This takes place in person at a Nursing Council-approved simulation centre and assessment centre in Christchurch, New Zealand. The applicant needs to pass the OSCE in a maximum of three attempts.

Services

One-on-One Counselling

Our expert counsellors provide an overview of the full process, including the estimated expenses and duration. The detailed counselling session helps the nurses choose the most convenient approach to the registration process and the best relocation options to New Zealand or Australia after nursing registration.

Eligibility Check

Each nurse's profile undergoes eligibility checks by our expert documentation team to ensure that they meet the New Zealand Nursing Council's registration requirements. This service contributes to the overall efficiency and accuracy of the process.

Documentation

A dedicated case manager from our experienced team facilitates the end-to-end documentation process, ensuring accuracy and efficiency with a client-friendly approach.
